Tesia-PCI Announces Transition for Harvey Rock; Marc Menendez and Eric Kirnbauer to assume expanded roles

June 1, 2008 – Great River, NY: Tesia-PCI Corp. today announced that effective June 1, 2008 Harvey Rock, Chairman/CEO, will transition out of a day-to-day role in the company to spend more time on Tesia-PCI's product development and his other business ventures. The company announced that to ensure that there was a smooth and orderly transfer of Rocks' daily responsibilities, after June 2008 Rock would continue to serve as an advisor on key development projects.

The company announced that Vice President / Chief Operating Officer Marc Menendez will immediately assume the title of President & Chief Operating Officer. Similarly, Vice President Eric Kirnbauer will immediately take responsibility of day-to-day operations at Tesia-PCI's New York Data Center.

"Our business and technical leadership has never been stronger, and Tesia-PCI is well-positioned for success in the years ahead. I feel very fortunate to have such sound leaders like Marc and Eric at the company," Rock said. "I remain fully committed to the success of Tesia-PCI and will be working side by side with Marc and Eric to ensure a smooth transition occurs."
